

July 7, 1950

Because the Departments of State and Defense believe the problem of producing national intelligence is of such critical importance, they have discussed the matter in some detail and have prepared a document representing their agreed views as to the nature of such intelligence and the best means of producing it.

Sincerely yours,

... SECRET

Staff Study: Production of National Intelligence

State Dept. declassification & release instructions on file